Internet Earning

First I will destroy a myth about «earnings without investments». In the Internet it has never exist. In any case you use tools for which it is necessary to pay. And to the basic of tools the INTERNET is most.

And now there is a question: «And my earnings in the Internet are active, or passive?». At once I will explain ...

The passive is when your investments exceed the income.

The active is when your income exceeds investments.

And first of all it is necessary to learn, what of two categories your earnings on the Internet concern. For this purpose it is necessary to make enough simple calculation.

1. To combine all expenses which you bear in a single whole. It is Internet payment, advertising, the domain, a hosting etc.
2. To combine each cent which managed to be earned for the certain period of time, for example for one month.
3. from the sum of expenses to subtract the sum of means which managed to be earned.

If your earnings have appeared passive, it is necessary to undertake something. For example, completely you should be focused on search of that will bring in your income which will block all investments.

If your earnings have appeared to be active, it is necessary to solve, accept it you or not. For example, as a result you had 1 dollar. I think it not the best result.

And more than 80 % of all people which try to start to receive the income from the Internet when will not come to the best result.

In my opinion, there are 3 steps of earnings in the Internet:

1. The beginning. The person comes to Internet to earn on purpose. It is self-assured, full of energy and the most important thing, he believes that will receive the income on which will buy apartment, the car etc.
2. A turning-point. At this step the person solves for himself, than to it to be engaged on the Internet. There is a choice of the further activity. And like all it is good, there are objects in view, but ...

The blind belief in earnings without investments and the big income from air does not give possibility to pass to the third stage. Many do not wish to see a reality. They for years will search for possibility to receive on 100$ for 1 cliques, but when will not understand that I use only 1 tool for earnings (Internet), it is almost impossible to receive that income of which they dreamt at the first stage.

Many in the fast realize that for more considerable income in the way beginning it is necessary to bear expenses which will exceed considerably a payment for the Internet.
