LifePath Unlimited Business Review - Don't Join Before Getting The Facts!

LifePath Unlimited began bringing personal development and prosperity products to the world in 2006. Founded by Joe Neid, Dave MacKenzie and Patrick Combs and headquartered in the town of Carefree, Arizona, this innovative business has continued to thrive, enriching the lives of both its customers and its representatives. This LifePath Unlimited Review will show you what is awaiting you.

The Discovery Series is a complete multi-media home-study course that shows exactly how to get on the path to prosperity and personal growth. Fourteen distinguished and experienced teachers show you exactly what purpose, power, attraction, results and more have to do with personal prosperity. The Discovery Series also comes with the Awakening DVD, the 56 Days to Destiny program and access to Saturday morning Beyond Discovery calls.

The Breakthrough seminar is a three-day, all-inclusive event for personal development held at a variety of different resorts, such as Cancun or Puerto Rico, twice a year. Listen to life-changing and inspirational speakers and break through limiting beliefs at the fire walk. Mingle with other people excited about personal development at the concluding black tie dinner. The cost of the seminar is for two people. Airline tickets are not included in the price of the Breakthrough seminar.

The Destiny seminar is a five-day event for two at some of the most luxurious and exotic places on the planet, such as Egypt, Tahiti or Europe. Participants are treated to inspirational talks by enlightened and empowered speakers; at the Destiny seminar every participant is actively and constantly engaged in taking their prosperity to the next level. Airline tickets are not included in the price of the Destiny seminar.

To become an authorized LifePath Unlimited business representative, you must first purchase the product yourself. The Discovery Series commission that you earn on every sale is $1,000. This goes straight to you as a representative. You do not have to pass up a sale to your sponsor.

The Breakthrough and Destiny seminars earn authorized representatives $5,000 and $9,000, respectively. Both of these programs do require representatives to pass the first sale of each program up to their authorized sponsors. If a representative is unable to purchase these packages, LifePath Unlimited offers an opportunity to earn them. To do this, representatives must pass their first five sales of each package to their authorized sponsors.

Membership includes a starter kit, access to Radio LifePath, which is accessible online and the official LifePath Unlimited newsletter. In addition, all members receive a complete back office, a replicated landing page that requires no knowledge of html or web design on the part of the representative, ongoing residual income and mentoring from some of the most knowledgeable marketers in the industry.

LifePath Unlimited is a one-of-a-kind network marketing business that will catapult you and your business to a level few ever experience. To learn more about these phenomenal products or to enroll as a representative, contact the person who directed you to this LifePath Unlimited business review. He or she will be delighted to assist you in getting started on your LifePath journey.
