Why The Beginners Lose Money In The Internet

The reason ?1: almost all beginners very quickly "break"

As soon as on a way of beginners there is a small barrier in the form of impossibility to type 100 subscribers of dispatch for 1 month or to sell more than 10 copies of a product in a month, or still any banal problem – they give in at once.

Beginners by and large are passive in the decisions. And if they see that the problem cannot be eliminated by own strength, it easier simply to wave away a hand and to neglect all. It is a completely wrong action for it is necessary to struggle for each step to Internet business.

If something is impossible to you – ask council the professional, as a last resort, pay to him for the problem decision.

The reason ?2: Irrational use of time

Beginners in most cases began fairy tales that on the Internet it is possible to earn, having spent only 1 hour of time a day. But even this hour they use not for the designated purpose. They check mail, look the web-attract the keeper, communicate at a forum.

As a result of any efficiency duties it is not executed. That is, the person has simply stayed near the computer of hour or so. But at the same time, he waits and hopes that soon will start to earn.

If you can give to Business in the Internet only 1-2 hours per day – forget that you can earn on the Internet. At a stage of formation and creation of the first sources of the income you will spend up to 16 hours a day. For example, I work over the Internet projects so much, how many it is necessary for performance of the planned amounts of works.

The reason ?3: Laziness

Laziness is one more component which does not allow to the beginner to start to earn on the Internet. Having read fairy tales that Business in the Internet to create very easily, the beginner and does not think to be engaged in the projects.

The beginner thinks that after site creation on some pages and downloading it on a free hosting work for it stops. After that money should rush to it a rough stream.

At this moment the beginner does silliest of all errors. It simply stops and waits, while someone will come on its site while someone will buy its book while someone will buy the book from a site under the partner reference.

The way of earnings described in some commercial products generates laziness at beginners. Their thoughts are simple enough: What for to me to work with a site if in the book it is written that visitors will find a site and will stably buy the book.
